Proof of a valid travel insurance policy

The insurance must be valid throughout all of the Schengen countries and must cover the whole duration of the stay or transit. The minimum cover is EUR 30,000.

The insurance must cover the cost of repatriation on medical grounds, urgent medical treatment and/or urgent hospital treatment or costs incurred in the event of death while in the Schengen area.

Original Dispatch Letter from the Employer

– Letter from the employer (in English/French/Dutch or in Chinese with English/French/Dutch translation) written on official company paper with stamp, signature, date and clearly mentioning:

- the address, phone and fax numbers of the employing company;
- the name and position in the employing company of the countersigning officer;
- the name of the applicant, position, salary and years of service;
- the purpose of the visit;
- the confirmation of keeping one's position after return;
- the person or the entity that will bear the travel and living costs.

– Sealed copy of the Chinese business license of the employing company and a full translation in English/French/Dutch.

Proof of solvency

Bank statements from the last 3 months, no deposits.

Bank statements should not be “credit card statements” but bank statements of a current account where one can identify the regular revenues (salary, pension, etc.).

If the company covers the costs of travel and stay: Proof of the solvency of the (employer's) company;

If the applicant is personally covering the costs of travel and stay: Proof of your personal solvency.

Invitation letter from inviting entity

Written on official letterhead paper with stamp and signature, mentioning clearly:

- the full address and contacts of the company;
- the name and position of the countersigning officer;
- the purpose and the duration of the visit;
- the detailed program;
- whether the inviting entity or the applicant is covering the cost of travel and stay and ;
- that inviting entity guaranties the return of the applicant to China.

A scanned copy of the invitation letter from the inviting entity sent by email to the applicant will be considered as an original.

Work Permit (where applicable)

A work permit may be needed in some cases.

The applicant should ask the inviting entity in Belgium to contact the competent authority in Belgium to check whether a work permit is needed or if the applicant is exempted.

NOTE

Attention ! Guarantees for return (assessment of migration risk): the applicant is requested to provide as much information as possible to document his/her family background, professional and socio-economic status, ownership of land or real estate (for instance : proof of family bonds with his/her country of origin, proof of regular income and stable source of revenues from the applicant and/or his/her partner, proof of property, etc.)

This information is essential to correctly judge the intention of the applicant to leave the Schengen area before the expiry of his/her visa.

Applicants who cannot enclose all documents from the list should consider adding alternative documents or explain the reason for not handing them in.

This checklist comprises all documents that are part of my visa-application. I understand that the Embassy will decide on my visa-application based on these documents only. I also understand that in exceptional cases additional documents may be requested by the Embassy, even documents that do not feature on this list at all.
