

Additional documents for minors

NOTARY PERMIT FROM PARENTS FOR THE CHILD'S DEPARTURE ABROAD

Original birth certificate (or a certified copy) must also be submitted. The original birth certificate (or certified copy) cannot be returned.

If a minor will travel accompanied by one of the parents (guardian), you should provide original and copy of the notary permit for the child's departure abroad from the second parent or guardian (can be submitted in the original (or as a certified copy) - cannot be returned), which will be valid on the territory of all countries of the Schengen agreement. Also, you should provide the copy of the foreign passport, copy of the visa, travel tickets and confirmation of co-accommodation of the accompanying person.

In the absence of one parent, you should provide:

- court decision on guardianship.
- in case of death of the second parent - certificate of the death.
- if the parent's location is unknown - certificate from the police.

If the minor child will travel unaccompanied by both of parents, it is necessary to provide his/her foreign passport, as well as notary permit for the child's departure abroad from both parents, in which the responsible person for the minor child in the Schengen countries should be indicated. Also, it is necessary to provide the copy of the foreign passport, copy of the visa, the traveler's ticket. When requesting a multiple visa, the validity of the permit should be in accordance with the requested period of validity of the visa.
