INTRODUCTION

A Visa application has to be submitted in person at the Consulate/service that serves the applicant's legal area of residence: <https://portaldascomunidades.mne.gov.pt/pt/rede-consular>

Visa applications in the United Kingdom, to visit or reside in Portugal, are done exclusively through VFS Global.

For overall information and the documentation required to apply for a Portuguese National Visa (Residence Visa or Temporary Stay) please read this document carefully and/or visit the Portuguese Foreign Office website (MNE):

English - <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/type-of-visa>

Portuguese - <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/pt/vistos-nacionais/informacao-geral/tipo-de-visto>

A Temporary Stay Visa is used for stays of over 90 days and up to 1 year, with multiple entrances allowed into Portugal.

A Residence Visa is for applicants that wish to stay in Portugal for more than 1 year. The applicant will initially be granted a visa valid for 120 days with up to two entrances into Portugal, followed by an appointment with AIMA in Portugal, to acquire a Residence Permit. More information regarding Residence Permits can be found in the link below:

<https://aima.gov.pt/pt/viver/autorizacao-de-residencia-regime-e-requisitos-gerais-art-o-77-o-n-o-1>

(The Consulate has no say or control over AIMA appointments for Residence Permit, and for more information regarding the required documents or rescheduling, applicants should reach out to AIMA directly.)

A Temporary Stay visa application can take 30 days for a decision. A Residence visa application can take 60 days for a decision. More information regarding deadlines for National Visa applications can be found in the link below:

<https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/deadlines>

More information regarding National visa fees can be found in the link below:

<https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/fees>

(please note that there may also be an external service provider administrative fee)

UK nationals that resided in Portugal prior to the end of 2020 may be entitled to the right of residence under the terms of the Withdrawal Agreement. Please check the link below for more information:

<https://brexit.sef.pt/en/>

For tax related inquiries please check the link below, or reach out to the relevant tax authority (Autoridade Tributária Portuguesa):

https://info.portaldasfinancas.gov.pt/pt/docs/Conteudos_1pagina/Pages/portuguese-tax-system.aspx

All public documents must be legalized per conventions in place, including, but not limited to, Civil Registry documentation, such as marriage and birth certificates, Criminal Record Certificates, professional certificates and diplomas. This legalization can be made through the Apostille (if applicable) or by utilizing the relevant Portuguese Consulate/service that serves the place of origin of the document in question:

<https://portaldascomunidades.mne.gov.pt/pt/rede-consular>.

Public documents from the United Kingdom, including the Criminal Record Certificate (ACRO) and Civil Registry documentation, must be legalized through the Apostille, which can be obtained from the Legalization Office: <https://www.gov.uk/get-document-legalised>. Certified translations are also required for documents not written in English or Portuguese.

The Term of Responsibility concerning the conditions of stay within Portuguese territory will only be accepted if the subscriber's signature is duly recognized by a Notary that serves the sponsor's legal area of residence.

Note:

- Failure to submit all the necessary documents may lead to the rejection of the visa application.
- The Consular Post reserves the right to request documents other than those mentioned above whenever deemed convenient.
- Even if all the requested documents are presented, it doesn't imply the automatic granting of the visa. Refusal of the visa application shall not entitle to a reimbursement of the visa fee.
- Consult the legislation in force in <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/national-legislation>
- Financial resources: Ordinance nº 1563 /2007, of the 6th of December
- Applicants can appeal refusal to grant a visa, in compliance with Portuguese domestic law. Available options being:
 - Issue a complaint, within 15 days following acknowledgment of refusal, against the issuer of the refusal (in compliance with article 191, Administrative Process Code (CPA));
 - Appeal the decision of refusal, within three months following notification, (in compliance with article 59 Administrative Court Process Code, CPTA and paragraph 2 of artigo 193 CPA), to the Minister of Foreign Affairs - email din@mne.pt
 - Bring an action to competent court (Administrative Court, Lisbon, Article 22 by suppletion, CPTA), within three months of notification of refusal (Articles 69 and 59 Administrative Court Process Code, CPTA) requesting the overruling of the refusal, and the granting of the required lawful act.
 - The referred options are not mutually exclusive. As such, the applicant can appeal to the Minister and, depending on the results of such appeal, continue towards litigation (Paragraph 4, Article 59, CPTA).
 - The applicant can also appeal the decision and bring an action simultaneously to the administrative court, without waiting for the results of the appeal (in compliance with paragraph 5 of article 59 CPTA).

Family members are defined as the following: • The spouse; • The partner, with whom main applicant has a civil partnership, duly proven under the law, either through a registered partnership or by providing evidence of cohabitation for over two years (council tax and utility bills, bank statements, rental contracts, owned property, etc.), and a No Trace of Marriage Document (apostilled and for both partners) that can be requested from the General Register Office: https://www.gov.uk/general-register-office • Minors or disabled children dependent on the couple or one of the spouses; • Minors adopted by the applicant (when single), by the applicant or by the spouse, as per decision of the competent authority of the country of origin, provided that the law of that country recognises adopted children with rights and duties identical to those of natural filiation and that decision is recognised by Portugal;	☐	☐

• Children of legal age, dependent on the couple or one of the spouses, who are single and studying at an educational establishment in Portugal; • Children of legal age, dependent on the couple or one of the spouses, who are single and studying, whenever the holder of the right to family reunification has a residence permit issued under Article 90.º-A; • First-degree relatives in the ascending line of the resident or their spouse, provided they are dependent on them; • Minor siblings, provided they are under the guardianship of the resident, in accordance with a decision issued by the competent authority of the country of origin and that decision is recognised by Portugal. • Single minors or disabled children, including adopted children of the partner of the civil partnership, provided they are legally under the protection of the partner. The following documents must be provided: • Proof of family relationship: birth certificate, marriage certificate, registered partnership – original or certified copy. Unregistered partnerships must provide evidence of cohabitation as a couple for over two years (council tax and utility bills, bank statements, rental contracts, owned property, etc.), and a No Trace of Marriage Document (for both partners) that can be requested from the General Register Office: https://www.gov.uk/general-register-office. All civil registry certificates, including the No Trace of Marriage Document, must be certified/apostilled per procedures in place. • Identification document of main applicant - original or certified copy • Proof of availability of stable and regular means, enough to cover the needs of the main visa applicant and the accompanying relatives during the required period of stay or for the period of 12 months, whatever is lesser (see proof of financial resources/means of subsistence) • Proof of main applicant's National visa request (if applicable): proof of appointment/visa request submission
ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS FOR MINORS
• Unabridged birth certificate showing biological parents names; if the birth certificate is not in English or Portuguese, then a translation by a certified translator is also required. • Original passports of both parents or certified copy of the biodata page of the passports. • Letter of consent of parental authority or legal guardian In the case of sole custody, the following documents must be submitted: • birth certificate mentioning one parent in English or Portuguese; or • death certificate of absent parent in English or Portuguese; or • court ruling in English or Portuguese. Application forms should be signed by the parent holding parental responsibility or legal guardian. When minors are not travelling with both parents, or are travelling with a third person, a travel authorization, with legalized signature, of one or both parents respectively, or a court order, is required.	☐	☐
CPLP MOBILITY AGREEMENT

CPLP citizens (from Brazil, Angola, Mozambique, Cape Verde, Guinea-Bissau, São Tomé and Príncipe, East Timor and Equatorial Guinea), are exempted from presenting: • travel insurance, • return transport ticket, • specific documents CPLP citizens are also exempt from presenting evidence of means of subsistence upon presentation of a term of responsibility recognised by a notary, in the following terms: a) Presentation of a term signed by the host entity for interns or workers, or by the organization responsible for student exchange or volunteer programs, or b) Presentation of a term of responsibility, signed by a Portuguese citizen or a foreign citizen, with a residence permit in Portugal, which guarantees food and accommodation for the visa applicant, as well as the replacement of removal costs, in case of irregular stay, accompanied by a copy of the sponsor's passport/ID., residence permit (if applicable), last 3 months of bank statements and most recent IRS declaration (if applicable).
Notes: • An Accompanying Family Member visa application is submitted together with the main applicant that is applying for a National Visa. Alternatively, this application can be submitted while the main applicant's visa request is under analysis. If the main applicant already has a Residence Permit, then an application for Family Reunification must be submitted with AIMA in Portugal. • The criteria to determine means of subsistence for dependents is based on the minimum monthly Portuguese salary, net of any tax and social security deductions, with a per capita increase for each family unit as follows: ○ First adult: 100%. ○ Second adult and additional adults: 50%. ○ Children and young people under 18 years of age and non-minor dependent children: 30% This is applicable both in terms of means of subsistence (available bank balance) and income of the main applicant/sponsor. • A Residence Visa is for applicants that wish to stay in Portugal for more than 1 year. The applicant will initially be granted a visa valid for 120 days with up to two entrances into Portugal, followed by an appointment with AIMA in Portugal, to acquire a Residence Permit. More information regarding Residence Permits can be found in the following link: https://aima.gov.pt/pt/viver/autorizacao-de-residencia-regime-e-requisitos-gerais-art-o-77-o-n-o-1 (The Consulate has no say or control over AIMA appointments for Residence Permit, and for more information regarding the required documents or rescheduling, applicants should reach out to AIMA directly.) • A Residence visa application can take 60 days for a decision, but an extended period of analysis may be requested in justified circumstances: https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/deadlines • All public documents must be legalized per conventions in place, including, but not limited to, Civil Registry documentation, such as marriage and birth certificates, Criminal Record Certificates, professional certificates and diplomas. This legalization can be made through the Apostille (if applicable) or by utilizing the relevant Portuguese Consulate/service that serves the place of origin of the document in question: https://portaldascomunidades.mne.gov.pt/pt/rede-consular. Public documents from the United Kingdom, including the Criminal Record Certificate (ACRO) and Civil Registry documentation, must be legalized through the Apostille, which can be obtained from the Legalization Office: https://www.gov.uk/get-document-legalised. Certified translations are also required for documents not written in English or Portuguese.

- The Term of Responsibility concerning the conditions of stay within Portuguese territory will only be accepted if the subscriber's signature is duly recognized by a Notary that serves the sponsor's legal area of residence.
- Failure to submit all the necessary documents may lead to the rejection of the visa application.
- The Consular Post reserves the right to request documents other than those mentioned above whenever deemed convenient.
- Even if all the requested documents are presented, it doesn't imply the automatic granting of the visa.
- Refusal of the visa application shall not entitle to a reimbursement of the visa fee.
- Consult the legislation in force in <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/national-legislation>

<https://aima.gov.pt/pt/viver/autorizacao-de-residencia-para-investimento-art-90-o-a/portal-ari>

The rules governing the granting of Residence Permit for Investment (ARI/Golden Visa) enable third country nationals to obtain a temporary residence permit to conduct business activities with visa waiver to enter national territory. The beneficiaries of ARI / Golden Visa are entitled to:

- Residence visa waiver for entering Portugal;
- Living and working in Portugal, on condition that they stay in Portugal for a period of 7 or more days, in the first year, and 14 or more days, in the subsequent years;
- Visa exemption for travelling within the Schengen Area;
- Family reunification
- Applying for permanent residence (pursuant to the Aliens Act – Act number 23/2007 of 4 July with the current wording);
- Applying for Portuguese citizenship, by naturalization, provided all other requirements set out by the Nationality Act are fulfilled (Act number 37/81 of 3 October, as amended);

All third country citizens who conduct an investment activity, as an individual businessperson or through a company set up in Portugal or in another EU Member State, may apply for a Residence Permit for Investment, provided these citizens fulfil the quantitative requirements and the time requirements set out by the relevant legislation: <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/ari-residency-permit-for-investors>

Registration is done directly through Portal ARI: <http://ari.sef.pt>

RIGHT TO LIVE IN PORTUGAL OF EU / EEE / ANDORRA / SWITZERLAND NATIONALS AND THEIR FAMILIES

<https://aima.gov.pt/pt/nacionais-ue-e-familiares>

According to the provisions of Act 37/2006 of 9 August, the following citizens have a right to enter, remain and reside in Portugal:

- The Nationals of all European Union Member-States (EU) that travel or reside in Portugal, as well as their family members travelling or reunifying with them;
- The nationals of States party to the European Economic Area, Principality of Andorra and Switzerland, as well as their family members;
- The family members of Portuguese citizens regardless of their nationality.

Current legislation defines as family members of citizens from the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Principality of Andorra and Switzerland, the following:

- Spouse;
- Relatives in the descending line under 21 years old;
- Relatives in the descending line over 21 years, that prove to be dependent from the rights holder;
- Relatives in the ascending line if dependent of the rights holder.
