INTRODUCTION

A Visa application has to be submitted in person at the Consulate/service that serves the applicant's legal area of residence.

For overall information and the documentation required to apply for a Portuguese National Visa (Residence Visa or Temporary Stay) please read this document carefully and/or visit the Portuguese Foreign Office website (MNE):

English - <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/type-of-visa>

Portuguese - <https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/pt/vistos-nacionais/informacao-geral/tipo-de-visto>

A Temporary Stay Visa is used for stays of over 90 days and up to 1 year, with multiple entrances allowed into Portugal.

A Residence Visa is for applicants that wish to stay in Portugal for more than 1 year. The applicant will initially be granted a visa valid for 120 days with up to two entrances into Portugal, followed by an appointment with SEF/AIMA in Portugal, to acquire a Residence Permit. More information regarding Residence Permits can be found in the links below:

<https://imigrante.sef.pt/en/solicitar/residir/>

<https://imigrante.sef.pt/en/direitos-deveres/>

(The Consulate has no say or control over SEF appointments for Residence Permit, and for more information regarding the required documents or rescheduling, applicants should reach out to SEF directly.)

A Temporary Stay visa application can take 30 days for a decision. A Residence visa application can take 60 days for a decision. More information regarding deadlines for National Visa applications can be found in the link below:

<https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/deadlines>

More information regarding National visa fees can be found in the link below:

<https://vistos.mne.gov.pt/en/national-visas/general-information/fees>

(please note that there may also be also an external service provider administrative fee)

UK nationals that resided in Portugal prior to the end of 2020 may be entitled to the right of residence under the terms of the Withdrawal Agreement. Please check the link below for more information:

<https://brexit.sef.pt/en/>

For tax related inquiries please check the link below, or reach out to the relevant tax authority (Autoridade Tributária Portuguesa):

https://info.portaldasfinancas.gov.pt/pt/docs/Conteudos_1pagina/Pages/portuguese-tax-system.aspx

Under the terms of paragraph 8 of article 16 of Decree-Law no. 10-A/2020 of 13 March 2020, which establishes exceptional and temporary measures relating to the COVID-19 pandemic, the validity of documents and visas related to the stay in Portuguese territory that have expired since 28 February 2020 has been extended until 31 December 2023 – this is also applicable to applicants that enter Portugal under visa exemption rules. The permits and visas regarding the stay in the national territory are still accepted under the same terms after 31st December 2023, as long as their holder submits supporting evidence that they already have an appointment for the corresponding renewal.

Note:

- Failure to present all necessary documents may result in the visa application being refused.
- The Consular Post has the prerogative to request additional documents when it considers fit to do so.
- The presentation of all necessary documents in the visa application may not be construed as an automatic approval of the visa. The refusal of the visa request does not entail the reimbursement of the visa fees.
- Applicants can appeal refusal to grant a visa, in compliance with Portuguese domestic law.

Available options being:

- Issue a complaint, within 15 days following acknowledgment of refusal, against the issuer of the refusal (in compliance with article 191, Administrative Process Code (CPA));
- Appeal the decision of refusal, within three months following notification, (in compliance with article 59 Administrative Court Process Code, CPTA and paragraph 2 of artigo 193 CPA), to the Minister of Foreign Affairs - email din@mne.pt and/or vistos@mne.pt
- Bring an action to competent court (Administrative Court, Lisbon, Article 22 by suppletion, CPTA), within three months of notification of refusal (Articles 69 and 59 Administrative Court Process Code, CPTA) requesting the overruling of the refusal, and the granting of the required lawful act.

The referred options are not mutually exclusive. As such, the applicant can appeal to the Minister and, depending on the results of such appeal, continue towards litigation (Paragraph 4, Article 59, CPTA).

The applicant can also appeal the decision and bring an action simultaneously to the administrative court, without waiting for the results of the appeal (in compliance with paragraph 5 of article 59 CPTA).

- Underage or incapable children under guardianship of the couple or of one spouse;
- Minors adopted by an unmarried applicant, by a married applicant or by the spouse, following decision taken by the relevant authority of the Country of origin, provided that legal framework incorporates the same rights and duties of natural affiliation and provided that decision is acknowledged by Portugal.

Civil partnership – Family reunification may be authorized with:

- A non-marital legally recognized partner of the resident, irrespectively of whether the partner is inside or outside national territory;
- Underage or incapable children, including children adopted by the legal partner, provided these children are under their guardianship.

For more information regarding the necessary documents for proof of partnership, please check the link below and reach out to SEF for more information:

<https://eportugal.gov.pt/en/guias/casar-ou-viver-em-uniao-de-facto>

The applicant with the right to reside in Portugal starts the family reunification procedure directly in Portugal with SEF (Portuguese Immigration and Border Services). For more information, please check the links below:

<https://imigrante.sef.pt/en/solicitar/residir/art98-2/> (relative already in Portugal)

<https://imigrante.sef.pt/en/solicitar/residir/art98-1/> (relative outside Portugal)

If the relative in question is not in Portugal and requires a visa to enter Portugal, then the relative should submit an application for Residence Visa for family reunification at the Consulate/service that serves the applicant's legal area of residence. This application can only be submitted once SEF has authorized the family reunification procedure, and requires the following documents:

This application is submitted together with the main applicant that is applying for a National Visa. Alternatively, this application can be submitted while the main applicant's visa request is under analysis or when the applicant has a valid Residence Visa, but has not started the Residence Permit procedure with SEF. If the applicant already has a Residence Permit, then an application for Family Reunification (D6) must be submitted with SEF.

1. Visa application form (see here)
2. Personal statement

Signed personal statement explaining the reason(s) for applying for a National Visa to Portugal, which should reference address of stay and sources of income, if applicable.

3. Passport

Signed passport, with at least two blank pages for visa purposes, valid for a minimum of 6 months and issued within the last 10 years on the day of leaving the Schengen Area.

Extended passports can only be accepted if they do not go beyond the 10-year validity.

4. Proof of being in a regular situation when from a different nationality than that of the country where the visa is being applied for - UK Residence permit (if applicable)

UK Residence permit, endorsed in the passport or issued as a Biometrics card, valid for at least 3 months.

5. 2 Photographs

6. Travel Insurance

Travel insurance valid for a minimum of 4 months (starting from the intended arrival into Portugal) – clearly showing the customer's name - allowing medical coverage, including medical emergencies and repatriation. British nationals may present the S1 Form (stamped at the bottom by the relevant authority) as proof of valid travel insurance.

7. Criminal record certificate from the country of origin or the country where the applicant is residing for over a year (children under the age of 16 are exempt from producing a criminal record). Must be less than 4 months old.

I am aware that the visa fee is not refunded if the visa is refused. Applicable in case a multiple entry visa is applied for: I am aware of the need to have an adequate travel medical insurance for my first stay and any subsequent visits to the territory of Member States. I am aware of and consent to the following: the collection of the data required by this application form and the taking of my photograph and, if applicable, the taking of fingerprints, are mandatory for the examination of the application; and any personal data concerning me which appear on the application form, as well as my fingerprints and my photograph will be supplied to the relevant authorities of the Member States and processed by those authorities, for the purposes of a decision on my application. Such data as well as data concerning the decision taken on my application or a decision whether to annul, revoke or extend a visa issued will be entered into, and stored in the Visa Information System (VIS) for a maximum period of five years, during which it will be accessible to the visa authorities and the authorities competent for carrying out checks on visas at external borders and within the Member States, immigration and asylum authorities in the Member States for the purposes of verifying whether the conditions for the legal entry into, stay and residence on the territory of the Member States are fulfilled, of identifying persons who do not or who no longer fulfil these conditions, of examining an asylum application and of determining responsibility for such examination. Under certain conditions the data will be also available to designated authorities of the Member States and to Europol for the purpose of the prevention, detection and investigation of terrorist offences and of other serious criminal offences.
