Applicant need to be present during the submission

I'm informed that an incomplete application and/or a false statement on the above form can delay the process or even result in a refusal by the consulate. I am also informed that VFS must not be opposed to my visa request submitting. However, I am aware that VFS must notify me of the missing of some documents. In consequence, I will have to complete my application for process. And, any breaches in this regard may result in a refusal.

I recognize that I can be convened for an interview by the consulate if need be. If so, VFS will communicate to me a date for an appointment but free of any additional expenses. If necessary, the consulate can also request supplementary information/documents.
